REACTING IN THE EVENT OF A TERRORIST ATTACK

1. ESCAPE
- Do not set off the fire alarm
- Leave all your belongings behind
- Do not reveal yourself (bend over, lean forwards)
- Take the least exposed and closest exit
- Use a known route
- If possible, help others to escape
- Warn / alert other people around you
- Avoid panic movements
- Facilitate intervention by the security forces and the emergency services

BE CERTAIN THAT YOU CAN ESCAPE WITHOUT RISK

2. HIDE
- Lock yourself in and barricade the entrance
- Move away from walls, doors, and windows
- Put mobile telephones in silent mode with no vibrator and disconnect landlines telephones
- Secure people showing signs of stress
- Maintain complete silence

IF YOU CANNOT ESCAPE

3. ALERT
- Where? Give your position and that of your attackers;
- What? The nature of the attack (explosion, shooting, hostage-taking, etc.), type of weapon (firearm, cold weapon, explosives, etc.)
- Who? Estimated number of assailants, physical description and attitude, estimated number of wounded persons and of persons hiding around you.

ONCE YOU ARE SAFE
- How are they behaving?
- Are they watching television?
- Do they have means of communication?
- If you cannot speak, call and leave the line open so that the security forces can be warned.

IF REMAINING HIDDEN OR CARRYING OUT AN EVACUATION ARE IMPOSSIBLE, AND IF YOUR LIFE IS THREATENED
- Attack as a group
- Distract the adversary (shout out)
- Protect yourself using an improvised shield (bag, chair, an item of clothing rolled around a forearm, etc.)
- Lock yourself in and barricade the entrance
- Move away from walls, doors, and windows
- Put mobile telephones in silent mode with no vibrator and disconnect landlines telephones
- Reassure people showing signs of stress
- Maintain complete silence
